NEW OXFORD'S SCHOOL BOARD TO CONTINUE BIBLE, PRAYER

Bible reading, the Lord's Prayer and the pledge of allegiance will be continued in the New Oxford Area Merged School District despite the Supreme Court ruling banning the practice.

The New Oxford School becomes the only school in the county to defy the Supreme Court decision against religious participation in public schools. All other schools have announced their intention to formulate substitute programs temporarily or on a regular basis.

Members of the New Oxford board voted Wednesday evening 11-5 to disregard the court ruling and voice indignation at the statement of Pennsylvania's Attorney General Walter Allensandro that Bible reading and prayer "will not be permitted in Pennsylvania schools."

LENGTHY DISCUSSION

The decision came after lengthy discussion of the 16 board members present and reverses the announcement of school administrators Tuesday that a substitute program would be developed for the 1,315 pupils in the New Oxford district.

The discussion started after Charles W. Hash, supervising principal, told members that he planned to appoint a committee to recommend suitable literature for a substitute opening program in the schools. Such readings were used in New Oxford schools Wednesday.

One member of the board said he did not favor selective readings on the basis that too much controversy could result from individual teacher choice. A second member of the board moved to

Bombs, Bullets, Slaying Mark Racial Outbreak In Birmingham Integration

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—The bombing of a Negro leader's home and a wild outbreak of racial violence marked by the fatal shooting of another Negro led to a temporary postponement today of Birmingham's public school desegregation.

Gov. George C. Wallace moved back into the picture with an early morning announcement that the city Board of Education had agreed to close three schools ordered integrated by the federal courts. They opened for registration Wednesday and classes were scheduled today.

An explosion heard two miles away broke a calm of several hours after two Negroes had enrolled at one of the schools.

SECOND TIME

The home of Arthur Shores had been bombed again—the second time in three weeks.

Screaming Negroes in the neighborhood rushed to the home of the attorney who has been a leader for years in the fight of his race against segregation. Police riot squads poured in.

Rock throwing by the resentful

Negroes followed, then gunfire by officers as a melee involving hundreds of Negroes and scores of city and county policemen raged for more than an hour.

Wallace's announcement from the executive mansion at Montgomery, made through an aide on the scene here, came at 4:20 a.m.

SHANKS DRAWS 3-30 YEARS IN PENN MOC CASE

William Neal Shanks, 28, formerly of Littlestown R. D., was sentenced to from three to 30 years in the Eastern Correctional Institution Wednesday afternoon by the Adams County court for embezzling approximately $52,700 from the Penn-Moc Shoe Co., Fairfield.

The court told Shanks that the sentence here is based upon the 30-year sentence he is now serving in Maryland penal institutions for two bank robberies in the Westminster area. If he serves the full 30 years in Maryland, then he will get the minimum of three in Pennsylvania; if he is released by Maryland within a few years, then he will have a maximum of 30 years in Pennsylvania.

In addition to the 30 years for bank robbery in Maryland, he is also under an indeterminate sentence there on another matter. In imposing the local sentence Judge W. C. Sheely noted that "neither you nor we at this time can determine how much time you will spend in Maryland prison. It is the feeling of this court that you must serve a substantial period of time, whether in Maryland or in Pennsylvania."

Shanks faced three charges of

Mummert Gets Jail Sentence In Theft Case

Harry J. Mummert, 28, New Oxford R. 1, who said he stole an acetylene torch, hose and gauges valued at $100 "to get food for my wife and two children," was sentenced to from six to 12 months in the county jail by the Adams County court Wednesday afternoon.

Mummert was charged with burglary and larceny in the removal of the torch and equipment from the Adams Agstone Company, Hanover R. 5, sometime between January 19 and January 28. Mummert said he had gotten fired from a job, was unable to get public assistance and took the articles "to get something for the family to eat." However, he had not sold the articles and when state police came inquiring about them, he took the items to the state police station here and gave himself and the items up. He told the court that "it's been five years since I've been in trouble" and said since he had married he had settled down. The court, checking the records, agreed that Mummert had stayed out of court for five years, then asked when Mummert first had been before Judge W. C. Sheely. Mumm

Treaty Rapped By Goldwater As Peace Peril

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., demanded today a formal reservation postponing the effectiveness of the limited nuclear test ban treaty until the Soviets remove their military forces from Cuba.

Goldwater, regarded as a potential candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, said he would offer such a reservation after the Senate takes up the treaty next week.

If the Senate adopts a formal reservation, it might require negotiation of the treaty. The Senate Foreign Relations Committee voted 16-1 last week to recommend ratification without any reservation.

POTENTIAL PERIL

In a speech prepared for the Senate, Goldwater declared that as it now stands, the treaty is "a potential peril to peace rather than a step toward it."

Goldwater has been a frequent critic of the treaty, but administration forces say they are confident the Senate will approve the pact overwhelmingly.

Sen. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., said today he thinks no more than five Republican votes will be cast against ratification.

Goldwater also called for another reservation, originally proposed by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, formally reserving the right of the United States to be sole judge as to when and where it will use its nuclear weapons to defend itself or its allies.

The Foreign Relations Committee, while opposing any formal reservation, wrote into its report an "understanding" to that effect.

Christ Lutheran Plans Meetings

Christ Lutheran Church of Gettysburg has planned a series of two-hour meetings to be held each evening in the Parish House at 8 o'clock from Sunday through Thursday, September 12.

"What is Christ Lutheran Church's mission in these changing times?" and "What must the members do to see that the church performs its mission?" are questions around which discussions are planned for the nightly meetings. A list of questions has been prepared and mailed to the membership to serve as a discussion guide. Members are requested to bring other questions for open discussion.

Members will gather in small informal discussion groups during the first hour and in the second hour all present will assemble to review the ideas expressed in the various groups. The consensus of the meetings will be recorded and given active consideration by the committees of the church.

The nightly meetings are planned so members may select one or more nights convenient for them to attend. Members are reminded to return the mailing cards indicating the night or nights they plan to attend.

TAX TAKE ON AMUSEMENTS UP IN AUGUST

Tourist visitation to Gettysburg continues high, according to the monthly report of Borough Treasurer Charles E. Kuhn.

One borough connection with the tourist trade is its amusement tax and the August financial report shows income of $2,262.24 from that source, the largest amount in any one month since the tax was imposed. The figure reflects some July admissions.

Total borough receipts for the month were $9,734.01, of which $5,294.92 came from the parking meters. Justices of the peace turned over $35. Mayor William G. Weaver collected $529.75. Tax Collector J. Herbert Weikert turned in $1,513.70.

Expenditures exceeded the receipts, with the cost of the town's operation last month being $12,367.03.

But the town was still in good shape financially. It ended August with a cash balance of $91,455.76 plus $60,265.62 in certificates of deposit. One of the certificates of deposit, for $12,500, comes due September 20 and borough council at its meeting Tuesday directed that the money be replaced in a certificate of deposit for the coming year.

So far this year the town has spent $116,513.54, according to the report. The total is divided into $15,674.65 for general government; $41,614.74 for protection to persons and property, $36,178.10 for highways, $8,339.14 for miscellaneous purposes, $8,424.87 for electricity and $6,282 for recreation.

Don, a West Virginia native, has won three Emmys for his supporting role on the show—a part he dreamed up for himself. He had worked with Andy in "No Time for Sergeants," a stage play which first brought Griffith to public attention. When the television series was under consideration, he merely called his pal Andy on the telephone and suggested that the sheriff of Mayberry needed a deputy. Andy allowed as how he did, and Don had a permanent job.

Flames Raze Famed Hackney Restaurant

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—A wind-whipped fire destroyed Hackney's Restaurant, a landmark in this resort, today.

Damage was estimated by Ralph Hackney, owner of the sea food house, at $1 million.

Homes in the immediate area were evacuated but firemen confined the blaze to the three-story restaurant building, which occupies an entire boardwalk block at Absecon inlet. No one was injured.

BEGAN IN KITCHEN

The fire burst out of a deep fryer in the kitchen about 1 a.m. Harry Dozer, one of three employees on duty, said they tried to douse the blaze with extinguishers but it hit a plastic hose and climbed wildly to the ceiling.

The men ran out, Dozer said, yelled to a motorist to sound an alarm, then rushed back to alert Hackney and others in the building. The restaurant had closed at 10 Wednesday night.

In a third floor apartment were Wayne Hackney, an official of the restaurant, Ralph Hackney, vice president and son of the owner, and Ralph's wife, Doty, and 22-month-old baby, Kurt.

Mrs. Viola Sharp, a hostess, and Miss Mary Goldschmidt, a guest, were in a second floor apartment.

Wayne Hackney said, "If there is any possible way to rebuild it, we will, I'll tell you that."

He said the restaurant had operated since 1912 without a major fire. It grew from a 40-seat structure to one that could hold 3,000.

embezzlement and forgery: One based on $22,336.62 in Western Union money orders and checks sent to Frank Benningfield, Baltimore; another based on $7,438.16 worth of checks he made out to himself, and one based on $21,945.52 paid to "Baltimore Leather Co.," a fictitious concern.

He was sentenced to from one to 10 years on the first charge, then to from one to 10 years on the second charge beginning at the expiration of the first term, and then to from one to 10 years on the third charge beginning at the expiration of the second sentence, thus giving him the minimum of three and maximum of 30 years. He was also directed to pay the costs and make restitution of the money he had embezzled.

According to records in the case the amount of the 65 forged checks totaled $52,770.35, of which the First National Bank of Fairfield paid out $38,014.86 while payment was stopped, with other banks taking the loss on $14,728.79. Checks paid to Western Union for money orders totaled $19,068.45. Checks to Dorothy Jane Reid totaled $1,695. Checks to Frank Benningfield totaled $2,567.17. Checks to William Neal Shanks totaled $7,438.16. Checks to Baltimore Leather Co. totaled $21,945.52.

SHANKS' STORY

Shanks told the court that, in connection with the nearly $22,000 to "Baltimore Leather," "after the money left my hands I don't know where it went." He added that the money Benningfield had turned over to him after cashing money orders "went through the same as the others."

When the court asked that he explain further what he meant by "not knowing where the money went," Shanks replied, "If your honor requests a detailed explanation I think I should request an attorney. There are things here I don't know how to present, but an attorney might."

The court then designated Attorney S. M. Raffensperger to act as counsel for Shanks. After the attorney and Shanks had conferred for some time and the attorney met with the court in chambers, Shanks was brought back for the sentencing to be completed. At that time the court asked Shanks, "Is it safe then to say you became involved with some undesirable persons and you received no benefit from this money?" Shanks said that it was, and the sentence was imposed.

BENNINGFIELD APPEAL

Frank Benningfield, Baltimore, found guilty Wednesday afternoon of embezzlement in connection with the Shanks case, was not sentenced. His counsel, Attorney Gerald A. Walmer, said an appeal from the verdict of the jury will be filed with the court.

2 COUNTIANS GIVEN YEAR FOR ASSAULT

Two Adams County men, originally charged with rape and assault, and assault with intent to rape, were sentenced to one year in the Maryland House of Correction Tuesday morning after being found guilty of assault and battery by Magistrate Stanley Y. Bennett, Frederick.

The charges of rape and intent were dismissed by the state against Donald Lloyd Speelman, 26, of Adams County, and Charles William Stouter, 27, of Orrtanna R. 1, due to insufficient evidence.

Both men, who waived extradition in Pennsylvania, have been in the Frederick County jail since their arrest May 1 by Tfc. William L. Newcomer.

The victim of the assault and battery, a 16-year-old Emmitsburg area girl, testified the two men picked her up at her house about midnight to go look for a neighbor girl. After she was in the car, she was taken up in the mountains where the assaults occurred. She jumped out of the car and ran to a neighbor's house where she spent the night.

Both men pleaded guilty to assault and battery. Stouter was defended by Vernon Summers. Speelman was represented by Edwin F. Nikirk.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Plans Bus Line Out of Gettysburg: L. H. Frock plans to establish a bus line between Gettysburg, Hanover and Abbottstown, it was learned today. Mr. Frock at present operates a bus line between Hanover and Littlestown.

The new bus between here and Hanover will begin operation sometime next week, Mr. Frock said in announcing that he had secured permission from the Public Service Commission to establish the service.

Several years ago the Adams Transit company ran a bus line between Hanover and Gettysburg and Hanover and Abbottstown but that service has been discontinued.

Sawing Lumber For New Factory: The Orrtanna Canning company employees are engaged in sawing lumber for the rebuilding of the canning factory to replace the cannery which burned last December.

The material is being sawed from the timber of one of the company's farms, several miles east of Orrtanna. C. H. Wolford has charge of the saw mill operations. The company expects to have the building completed in time for the sour cherry canning next year.

Fred Troxell Heads Teachers: Fred C. Troxell, of the high school faculty, was elected president of the Gettysburg Teachers Association at the annual teachers meeting held Friday afternoon at the high school. He succeeds Lloyd Hartman.

Miss Louise Hartman was named vice president; Miss Catherine Dentler, secretary; Guy Wolf, treasurer, and Robert Fidler, delegate to the state convention, at the session. The tellers were Fred P. Haehnel, Miss Marian Biggs and Miss Gertrude Little.

Plans to use the time spent by the students in the home rooms to build character, develop personality and bring out desirable social traits were discussed by the teachers in a general session with Superintendent Lloyd C. Keefe. Following the general meeting separate sessions of the high school and elementary school teachers were held with Principal Guile W. Lefever presiding at the high school teachers' meeting and Superintendent Keefe at the elementary teachers' session.

Dr. C. H. Johnsons Welcome New Son: Dr. and Mrs. C. Harold Johnson, Chambersburg St., announce the birth of a son at the Warner hospital Sunday. Dr. Johnson is the pathologist at the local hospital.

Miss Keefeauver Gets Hanover Post: Miss Helen Keefeauver, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Keefeauver, Springs avenue, was elected home economics instructor at Hanover high school at a meeting of the Hanover school board Wednesday evening. ## Today's Talk

WHY PASS JUDGMENT?

Idle gossip is about the worst work the human mind can be asked to undertake. Especially if that gossip concerns some individual, about whose background and daily thoughts, there is not one iota of knowledge. As though we were discussing an undiscovered country.

The uncaring do so many things open to gossip that their conduct can be easily overlooked as unimportant—but if a man or woman once becomes prominent and useful then it is that the gossip mongers get busy, as though it were their duty (having nothing else on their minds) to find some flaw of character on which to leap. How easy it is, then, for those who do not know, to unjustly misjudge.

We find it very difficult, even to understand ourselves. How unimportant, then, for others to think that they understand us better, and so place themselves as superior judges of our thoughts and actions.

There is nothing constructive about passing judgment upon someone else, or in idle gossip about him or her.

The atmosphere becomes clear and clean and there is an elevated tone to everything spoken, when, in a gathering, people begin to say good things about an absent one or about one in high public affairs.

If I were the publisher of a newspaper I would not allow a column in my sheet talking scandal, or idle gossip. Interesting talk about real people, yes. But there would be no key-hole reporters on my staff. I could get along without readers only attracted to the troubles and misfortunes of others, or their mistakes.

It is bad enough to pass judgment upon one you know, without extending that to those whom you have never met, or known. Friends do not misjudge, or gossip.

AIR INSURANCEWASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Willard C. Curtin, R-Pa., wants insurance companies to be compelled to pay benefits in air crashes resulting from breach of safety rules by what he termed the few irresponsible air carriers.

Curtin, a member of the Commerce Committee, said Wednesday the few companies which violate safety measures are "precisely the kind of company which cannot pay liability claims brought against them through injury to passengers."

Curtin has introduced a bill to nullify a Federal Aviation Act provision which exempts insurance companies from paying benefits in crashes in which safety rules have been broken.

He said companies which ignore basic safety rules cannot be permitted to delude customers into believing the airline is covered by insurance when such coverage is contingent upon proper safety procedures.

TENNIS UPSET

By WILL GRIMSLEY

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—

The back of the Australian tennis dynasty is broken—and some of the most telling licks were dealt by a stringbean cannonballer from Florida anxious to avenge a big snub."It was the greatest tennis I ever played, and I couldn't have picked a better time to play it," Frank Froehling III of Coral Gables, Fla., said excitedly Wednesday night after pulling off one of the biggest upsets of the year.He knocked out Roy Emerson of Australia, rated the world's No.
1 amateur, with an explosive serve and volleying attack in the fourth round of the National championships 6-4, 4-6, 9-7, 6-2.Although second-ranked nationally, Froehling had been overlooked by Davis Cup selectors and the seeding committee this year.

AUSTRALIA SHUT OUT

The victory erased the last Australian from the field, marking the first time since 1950 that Australia has been shut out of the men's quarter-finals at Forest Hills.It puts an entirely different aspect on the Davis Cup challenge round, to be contested in December in Adelaide, Australia. Going into the quarter-finals, half of which will be contested today, are four Americans, Froehling, Marty Riessen, Chuck McKinley and
Donald Ralston; two Brazilians,
Ronald Barnes and Thomas Koch;
Mexico's Rafael Osuna and England's talented but erratic Bobby Wilson.

UPCOMING CARD

Wilson, who smashed young Cliff Buchholz of St. Louis out of his path 6-3, 6-0, 6-1 Wednesday, is Froehling's next opponent. They meet in one of the two men'smatches today with Ralston and Barnes clashing in the other.The other two men's matches
Friday send top-seeded McKinley the Wimbledon champion, against the sensational, 19-year-old Koch,

Littlestown and Bermudian Springs have Saturday afternoon engagements at 2 o'clock, the former meeting York Suburban on the latter's field while Bermudian battles Northern at Dillsburg.

Biglerville High waits until Saturday, September 14, when it meets Big Spring at Newville.

WESTMINSTER AT GHs

For the last nine years Westminster has spoiled the opening of the season for the Warriors by chalking up victories but this year Coach Don Young and his squad are highly hopeful of turning the tables on their tormentors.

Young has been well pleased with the progress and mental attitude of his squad and expects their hustle will make up for other deficiencies. The squad is free of injuries and full manpower will be available to throw at the Owls.

Jim Newman, one of the 11 lettermen on the squad, will direct the Warriors from the quarterback slot in the opener. The bespectacled lad will do the bulk of the passing and also kick for the extra points.

Rounding out the backfield will be Joe Riley and Larry Johnson, halfbacks, and Ron Plank, fullback, all of whom are lettermen. The probable starters on the line will include Bob Selby and Bill Jones, ends; Bob Sietz, Gary Guise or Tom Hefflin, tackles; Ken Kime, Paul Kump or Dan Heagerty, guards, and Dave Schwenk, center. All are lettermen with the exception of Selby, Jones and Hefflin.

Dick Finkbeiner and Nelson Wansel are scheduled to do the kicking.

Coach Young will undoubtedly juggle his squad considerably with a flock of promising reservists seeing action throughout, a number of whom may gain starting assignments in the future.

Westminster also has 11 lettermen on its squad and will have a weight advantage.

A large delegation of Owl fans will follow their team here and a big opening night crowd is certain. Last year Westminster triumphed 14-6 to boost its lead in the series to 9-5.

DELONE AT HANOVER

As usual another capacity crowd will jam Sheppard and Myers Field, Hanover, for the 29th clash between the Squires and Nighthawks.

Hanover holds a wide edge in the series at 21-5 while two games ended in deadlocks. Last year the Hawks triumphed 12-0.

Coach Bucky Kempton will field a young, speedy outfit. There are only eight seniors on the entire Squire squad. Thirteen of the candidates are lettermen.

Kempton plans to use two complete sets of backs and his defensive unit will vary considerably from the offensive squad. Linemen who will be on the defensive outfit include Jerome Thomassy, middle guard; Bill Shrader, right end; Phil Staub, veteran end, will miss the Hanover game due to an injury received during the summer.

Hanover anticipates a good season with the return of 12 lettermen, 11 of whom are seniors. Coach Steve Padjen has a letterman for every position with the exception of one end slot. Foremost among the returnees is Bob Shue, 190, Senior fullback who is expected to bear the brunt of the ball totting for the Hawks.

MANY SWITCH POSITIONS ON BULLET SQUAD

A small squad, tough opener and short preseason drills have Coach Gene Haas scratching his head and sliding off the end of his chair.

The Gettysburg College football squad has nearly completed its first week of workouts and already several problems and position changes have taken place. One of the big casualties during the early part of the week was last year's ground gainer, Phil Parsons. Parsons came up with an ankle sprain and at this early stage he may not see any action in the Buffalo opener on September 14.

Due to lack of interest and emphasis on grades, Haas has also lost two of his promising linemen. Bob Nelson, 200-pound guard, who lettered his Sophomore year, but did not play last season, has dropped off the squad as well as 225-pound center Ray Frick, a Sophomore from Wayne, N.J. Because of these losses and the small number of candidates, 37, Haas has had to make several position changes.

CHANGE POSITIONS

Roger Casciani, 195-pound York native, has been moved from end to guard. Sophomore Ron Zaworsky, 185 pounds, switched from fullback to center. Irv Strohecker, a 214-pounder from Trevorton, is learning the guard post as well as his own tackle slot. He is expected to alternate the positions. Tony Presogna, a Junior from Curwensville, has been moved from halfback to fullback.

Bob Forney and Mark Snyder, a pair of lettermen from the 1961 season who did not play last year, are holding their own and should gain a starting berth. Snyder is a former Big 33 end while Forney is a solid 212-pound center. John Hilly, a 230-pound tackle from Quakertown, has been coming on strong and could move to a starting assignment at tackle giving Strohecker a chance to work at guard.

Vance Johnston, Biglerville, who turned in a tremendous performance in the last game of the 1962 season against Temple, is holding down the number one quarterback position. With the temporary loss of Parsons, Haas will move either Barry Gruber, Harrisburg, or Harry Buzzard, Williamsport, into the right half slot. Ken Snyder, Hershey, is doing a fine job at left half.

CAUGHT FLATFOOTED

Senators officials had scheduled Lewis and his team—including singers Pat Boone and Fabian, Phillip and Dennis Crosby, and Hugh O'Brian—in hopes of jacking up the team's sagging attendance figures. Word that they'd play the majors' 100,000th game caught them flatfooted. Said one official:

"If we'd have known about this earlier, we'd have scheduled appropriate ceremonies. We might have arranged to give something away, something symbolic."

At last report Senator officials were busily thumbing through references trying to find out how you celebrate the playing of baseball's 100,000th game.

YORK SPLITS WITH CHAMPS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Charleston Indians split a doubleheader Wednesday night with fifth-place York in the Eastern Baseball League, but Charleston's loss no longer mattered.

The Indians have had the league pennant all sewed up since Tuesday.

In Wednesday's clash, the Indians piled up an early 6-1 lead in the opener, but blew it as York's White Roses scored two runs in each of the fourth, sixth and seventh innings.

Player-Manager John Schaive, pitching in relief, got the win for York. But he decided to start the second game and ended up with the loss on that one. Steve Hargan pitched a six-hitter in the nightcap and Charleston romped over York, 11-0.

Dick Estelle turned in one of his best pitching performances of the season as the Springfield Giants beat the Elmira Pioneers in another 11-0 game. Elmira picked up only three hits. John Papa took the loss.

Binghamton and Reading split the evening's other doubleheader. The Triplets took the first game 3-2 with Ed Millerstrom pitching the victory. The second game went to Reading's Red Sox, 1-0. Pitcher Jerry Stephenson won his own game with a one-out single in the overtime eighth inning. Jim Russing had scored a hit, followed by Mike Ryan, when Stephenson's single to left brought Russing in for the winning run.

MILESTONE IN BASEBALL ON FRIDAY NIGHT

By W. B. RAGSDALE JR.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thanks to comedian Jerry Lewis and his ballplaying buddies, the Washington Senators are scheduled to take part in a baseball milestone Friday—the 100,000th major league game.

For Senator fans, who have seen their team tied for last in 1961, last in 1962 and last all this season, any distinction is appreciated.

Lewis will lead a band of Hollywood All-Stars in a pregame exhibition against a team of Washington press, radio and television delay for 20 minutes the start of the Washington-Cleveland game. Otherwise the Milwaukee at Philadelphia game might have qualified for the honor.

HEADED MEETING

Jurgensen further indicated the heated air of the meeting when in answer to a question about whether they expected disciplinary action for walking out of camp without leave, replied:

"There might be some fines, although I think Nick (Head Coach Nick Skoric) was just as anxious as we were to get this settled."

The 29-year-old Jurgensen and Hill left camp because they said McNally had refused to sit down and work out their 1963 contracts.

CALCULATED RISK

"It's a tough thing to have over you," said Jurgensen, "playing exhibition games without a contract. It's a calculated risk. If we should be injured and be unable to play we would automatically be subject to a 10 per cent cut in our salaries."

McNally, who had virtually nothing to say to newsmen when he arrived at the Eagles office from Hershey, left after the conference with a low-voiced, curt advice to reporters, "They're all yours."

Asked whether he thought the walkout and ensuing controversy would affect morale of the team, Jurgensen replied, "I don't think so. The players were behind us. Some of them helped us pack the car when we left camp."

REPRESENT SELVES

Jurgensen said that neither he nor Hill represented any of the other four players still unsigned at the Eagles camp.

On the subject of whether he got a salary increase, Jurgensen, who reportedly earned in excess of $25,000 last year, said, "Yes, we got what we wanted. We both got what we came for."

Hill, who had been asked to take a cut, also said he was satisfied. He reportedly earned in the neighborhood of $20,000 in 1962. Both players refused to disclose salary terms and said any such comment would have to come from McNally.

After their impromptu news conference the two quarterbacks left for Hershey to report back to Coach Skoric in time for this afternoon's practice.

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—Archaeologist Julio Ripamonti said today he plans to spend the rest of his life digging in the wilderness around Devil's Ravine with hopes of finding Moses' tomb.

Ripamonti, professor at the Central University of Venezuela in Caracas, recently returned after a 50-day expedition to the ravine, at the foot of a hill named Roujoum Makhayyat about 20 miles south of Amman.

Ripamonti believes Roujoum Makhayyat, highest hill in the area, could be Mount Posgah from which the Bible says God showed Moses the Promised Land. Moses died before reaching the Promised Land and according to the Bible was buried in a valley.

Ripamonti believes Devil's Ravine may be the valley.

RIP ENGLE HAS REBUILDING JOB AHEAD

By VINCENT P. CAROCCI

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP) — Penn State football coach Rip Engle approaches the 1963 football season as a man living in the shadows of ghosts — Kochman, Hayes, Torris, and Gursky by name.

These four — halfbacks Roger Kochman and Al Gursky and fullbacks Dave Hayes and Buddy Torris — represented almost all of Penn State's ground offense last year.

They combined with quarterback Pete Liske and end Dave Robinson to lead the Lions to the Lambert Trophy, symbolic of Eastern football supremacy. It was the second consecutive year the Lions were so rated.

MORE COACHING NOW

Kochman, who made one all-star first team last year and two second teams, was the Nittanians' leading ground-gainer. Hayes and Torris finished second and third, Gursky, sixth.

But they're gone by graduation and Engle can be seen looking anxiously over his shoulder for adequate replacements.

As he put it: "Losing guys like that is going to make us start coaching more this year. Many days we were able to just hand them the football and tell 'em to run it over somebody. We're going to have to do a lot more coaching now."

GREATEST CHALLENGE

Many observers feel that Engle is faced with his greatest challenge in 13 years of coaching at Penn State.

Defensively, the Lions of 1963 figure to run true to form—big, strong and aggressive.

Offensively, the passing is in the capable hands of Liske, who last year set school records for total offense, passing yardage and touchdown throws.

It's the running game that is a question.

HAVE QUARTERBACKS

"It looks right now like we're going to have more trouble keeping the offense going and the defense honest," was the way one observer described the early season outlook.

Backfield candidates are in abundance. Quarterback is set with Liske and lettermen Don Caum and Ron Coates available.

Junior Powell, a senior, and junior Bud Yost appear to have first grabs at halfback. Junior Tom Urbanik rates number one at fullback at the moment.

COMPLETE ATHLETE

Powell, a 5-8, 165-pound, two-year letterman, again figures to be the Lions' leading pass receiver. Last year he caught 32, one short of the school record, but his size removes him as a ground threat.

Yost can best be described as a complete athlete. He was a standout back in high school and played fullback for the Penn State Frosh in 1961.

He and junior Gary Klingensmith appear to hold the key to Penn State's ground game.

There are a number of other boys in the running for full-time backfield berths this year, including letterman Frank Hershey. They all will get a thorough looking over as the Lions prepare for their opening game Sept. 21 at Oregon.

Engle never has had a losing season at Penn State. Unless he can come up with some adequate replacements for the departed stars, that record appears to be in danger this year.

MARIS HOMER IN 9TH WINS FOR YANKEES

By JIM HACKLEMAN

Associated Press Sports Writer

One wave of Roger Maris' wind did the trick and now the magic number is 11.

Maris pulled the game out of the hat in the last of the ninth inning with a two-run homer, lifting the New York Yankees to a 5-4 victory Wednesday over Washington.

A few hours later, Minnesota nosed into second place in the American League by beating the Los Angeles Angels 4-2 after Kansas City had swept a pair from the Chicago White Sox, 4-2 and 7-3.

The results reduced the Yanks' magic number to 11—an combination of New York victories and Minnesota losses totaling 11 will mean the Bombers' 28th pennant.

The Yankees are 12½ games ahead with 22 to go, the Twins have 23 to play, Chicago, now 13 out, has 22 games left.

Don't look for any surprises. Also in the AL—Phil Regan won again, Al Kaline took over the offense batting lead and Rocky Colavito batted in three runs as Detroit's streaking Tigers whipped Boston 6-1, and Baltimore overcame Cleveland 6-5 on the first grand slam homer of Luis Aparicio's eight-year major league career.

BOUTON BOMBED

Hard-throwing Jim Bouton, gunning for his 20th victory, was bombed for three homers—including a two-run blow by Senator pitcher Claude Osteen — as the Yankees trailed 4-3 going into the last of the ninth.

But they have a way turning these things around, and Maris applied the crusher this time with his 20th homer after a leadoff walk to Elston Howard. That made a winner out of Steve Hamilton, a loser out of Osteen.

Ed Brinkman and Don Lock had the other Washington homers.

Angel rookie Fred Newman made it easy for the Twins, wild pitching in one run and balking across Minnesota's clincher. Lefty Dick Stigman beat Los Angeles for the fourth straight time, squaring his record at 14-14 with a seven-hitner.

In the big book of baseball strategy you walk a guy like Billy Williams to get at Ken Hubbs. So the Dodgers did.

Their National League lead is now down to five games over second-place St. Louis.

Hubbs, who led the league in strikeouts with 129 last year and was equally proficient at hitting into doubleplays, crossed up the book Wednesday night by lining a two-out single in the 11th inning that gave the Chicago Cubs a 2-1 decision over first-place Los Angeles.

SPAHN GETS SHUTOUT

The Dodgers' board of strategy held its meeting after Andre Rodgers led off the 11th with a single and moved around to second on a sacrifice. With two out, it was decided to give Williams—who outthits Hubbs by about 50 points—an intentional walk.

That decision lopped a full game off the Dodgers' lead over the surging Cardinals, who extended their longest winning streak of

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By B. F. M. MacPHERSON

THE FAMILY OF THE REV. ALEXANDER DOBBIN

The historical and genealogical study of the Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian churchyard is continued at this time with data on the family of the Rev. Alexander Dobbin, minister of the Associated Reformed Church (Presbyterian).

The first grave in the Dobbin burial plot to catch the eye is that of the founder of the family in America — the Rev. Alexander Dobbin, minister of the Associated Reformed Church on November 1, 1785.

"The Rev. Dobbin was among the first and most desirous of the ministers to countenance the union of the Reformed and Covenant bodies, and took a leading part in the conferences which resulted in the formation of the Associate Reformed Church on November 1, 1785.

"Mr. Dobbin continued in charge of the Rock Creek Congregation, or as many as went with him, and was also installed for half-time in the Marsh Creek congregation, September 9, 1785. He thus divided his time and continued his labors until his death. He was, in every sense of the word, a true shepherd to his people.

TWICE MARRIED

"In October, 1808, the Rev. Mr. Dobbin, while on his way to Gettysburg to preach, ruptured a blood vessel by coughing and was unable to fill his appointment. His illness settled into a quick consumption from which he died at his home in Gettysburg June 1, 1809. He was buried in the Lower Marsh Creek graveyard."

The Rev. Dobbin was twice married; first to Miss Isabella Gamble, of County Down, Ireland, in July, 1772. He was married for the second time to Mrs. Mary Irwin Agnew, the widow of David Agnew, of Adams County, Pa., in 1801. His first wife was the mother of his children.

"This pioneer minister was an interesting and instructive preacher of the extemporaneous style. He was a distinguished linguist, especially in Hebrew, and established in his own home the first classical school west of the Susquehanna River. More than 60 of his pupils became professional men, and not less than 25 entered the ministry. Before the establishment of the theological seminary of the Associate Reformed Church, he was the preceptor for many years and his services were of great value. He was remarkably punctual at church courts, where his opinion was regarded, and he was honored with the moderatorship several times.

"In appearance the Rev. Mr. Dobbin was a small man with a bright black eye, a large pointed nose and was by no means imposing physically. He possessed a strong and sonorous voice and his gestures in the pulpit were not always the most graceful. He dressed in knee pants and wore the wig. He was a very social man, cheerful in his disposition and his countenance continually wore a smile. He adapted himself to all company, and his intercourse was much enjoyed for his wit and good humor."

Returning to the Dobbin burial plot in the Lower Marsh Creek churchyard the grave immediately beside that of the minister is that of his first wife.

2. "In memory of Mrs. Isabella Dobbin who departed this life August 19, 1800. Aged 49 years."

Note: The first wife of the Rev. Alexander Dobbin, the former Miss Isabella Gamble, to whom he was married in Ireland in July, 1772. The first Mrs. Dobbin was the mother of all the Dobbin children.

2. "In memory of Miss Mary Dobbin who departed this life April 14, 1820. Aged 30 years."

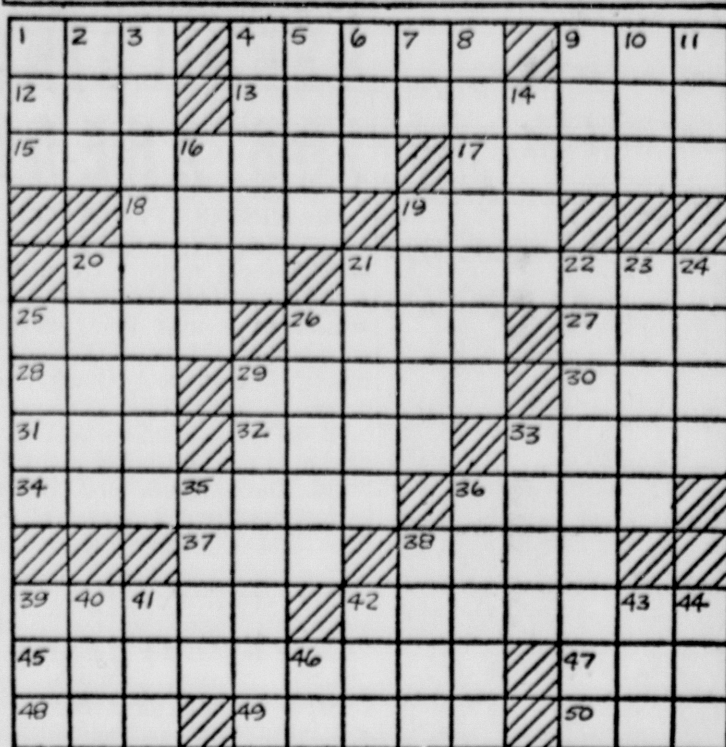

"Adams Centinel," Wednesday, April 19, 1820.

Note: "Died, Friday morning, April 14, 1820, after a lingering illness, Miss Mary Dobbin, the daughter of the Rev. Alexander Dobbin, deceased, aged 30 years."

The ninth child and second daughter of the Rev. Alexander and Isabella (Gamble) Dobbin. Mary Dobbin was born April 5, 1790, and was the second daughter to be given the name of "Mary." Apparently the first bearer died, either at birth or shortly thereafter.

The notes on the Dobbin family will be continued next week.

SEEK TO SPEED COURT TRIALS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Judge Vincent A. Carroll, Philadelphia Common Pleas Court administrator, has announced a new assignment approach for common pleas judges "to get the maximum use of our manpower" and reduce the backlog of civil and criminal cases.

Judge Carroll said Wednesday that he and 20 other common pleas judges and leaders of the Philadelphia Bar Association have agreed to the following measures:

The assignment of seven judges to preside over five civil courts for jury trial for the balance of the year.

Seven judges to be assigned to preside over five courtrooms to hear jury trials in criminal cases for the same period.

Six judges to sit in five courtrooms, three to hear nonjury and equity cases, two to preside over consolidated motions.

Judge Carroll said the longer period should help cut the backlog of about 28,000 civil and criminal cases here.

Truck Driver Is Killed In Crash

PALMERTON, Pa. (AP)—Wheaton Williams, 58, of Walnutport, Northampton County, died Wednesday at Palmerton Hospital of injuries received when he was thrown from his five-ton coal truck after it rammed a porch here and knocked down two porch posts.

He died of a fractured skull and internal injuries.

Palmerton police said Williams apparently lost control of the truck which ran off the side of the highway and struck a brick porch.

The vehicle overturned and four tons of coal spilled onto the highway.

MANY OPPOSE ARMY PLANS FOR POTOMAC

WASHINGTON (AP)—Witnesses from four states, including Pennsylvania, have opposed in whole or in part the Army Engineer proposals for developing the water resources of the Potomac River Basin.

Representatives from Virginia, West Virginia and Maryland also voiced objections to the $500 million plan for 16 major and 418 smaller dams Wednesday during a hearing before the Army's Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors.

The chief criticisms of the project were that the proposed dams were not needed, that they would create hardship by dislocation of families and by reduction of land area for tax purposes, and that they would destroy scenic values.

SPECIAL ATTACK

The Chambersburg Dam on Conococheague Creek near Chambersburg, Pa., was singled out for a special attack for these reasons, as were the Brooks Gap Dam, Va.; Royal Glen Dam, W.Va., and the high dam at Seneca on the Potomac.

George W. Fries, a Chambersburg farmer, said the Chambersburg Dam along with the Branch Dam on the West Branch of Conococheague Creek would hurt the economy of Franklin County.

He said the hope of attracting industry would be lost because the tax base for local taxes would be reduced through the loss of some of the county's best farm lands.

OPPOSING WITNESSES

Among others who attacked the proposed dams were Delmar Mellett, a commissioner of Fulton County, Bruce O. Bivins of Big Grove Tannery, Pa., and Charles H. Davidson, Chambersburg.

Mellett said Fulton County could not afford to lose any more of its taxable property.

Davidson, attorney for the Western Franklin County School Authority, contended schools would be hampered by lowering the prospects for bond issues.

ALTERNATE PLANS

Alternate plans, such as cleaning up the river, building smaller dams upstream and constructing German-type river channel dams were also suggested.

Creed Sions, of Cabins, W.Va., opposed the Royal Glen Dam but urged consideration of pollution abatement.

The engineers' proposals were supported by Charles A. Robinson Jr., engineer and counsel of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association. He said a high dam should be built at River Bend rather than at nearby Seneca because it would yield greater benefit than "the attempted compromise dam at Seneca."

2 SUPPORT PLAN

Robinson urged that hydroelectric power facilities be provided no matter where the dam is built. He also asked consideration for power facilities for the proposed dams at Bloomington, Md., Mount Storm, W.Va., and at North Mountain, in West Virginia and Virginia.

Two young women supported the West Branch Dam on the Conococheague Creek. Miss Jane Wineman, Richmond Furnace, Franklin County, and Miss Carole Climar, Fannettsburg, Pa., contended the proposed dam would aid the economy of the area.

GAS WELL FIRE IS SMOTHERED

EVERETT, Pa. (AP)—A gas well fire was virtually smothered Wednesday night after having burned fiercely for 2½ days.

Employees of two exploration and drilling firms—the Baroid Co. of Houston, Texas, and the Halliburton Co. of Indiana, Pa.—pumped a chemical "mud" into the blazing well pipe.

The flaming gas slowly died, although small quantities of gas continued bubbling up through the "mud" and burned.

The well, owned by the New York State Natural Gas Co., is 16 miles south of this Bedford County community. It erupted into flames Monday shortly after it was brought in by the Delta Drilling Co. of Tyler, Tex.

Red Adair, a Houston man who specializes in extinguishing well fires with explosives, was brought to the scene and helped smother it, although he did not blast.

DIES OF INJURIES

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Dennis Moran, 18, of nearby West Seneca died Wednesday night from injuries suffered when his automobile hit a telephone pole Tuesday.

Switzerland Mourns Victims Of Its Worst Plane Tragedy

By HANS NEUERBOURG

DUERRENAESCH, Switzerland (AP)—Switzerland today mourned for victims of its worst airline disaster, a crash that killed 80 persons, including almost a complete generation of the farming village of Humlikon.

"This is worse than a war," said a farmer in Humlikon after being informed that his parents were among the 43 passengers from his village killed when a Swissair twin-jet Caravelle from Zurich exploded and crashed in fog Wednesday. All 74 passengers and six crewmen were killed.

Humlikon lost about one-fifth of its 217 population. The community also lost its mayor and all councilmen.

ENROUTE TO GENEVA

With the other villagers, they were heading to Geneva to visit an agricultural experiment station.

For many of the villagers, it was their first flight. There were 19 married couples among them. They left 40 orphans.

Despair and disbelief hung over Humlikon. No children played. Red-eyed adults conversed in whispers.

"WHOLE GENERATION"

Said Gottfried Meisterhans, 28, whose parents perished in the disaster:

"This is terrible. This is worse than war because it wiped out virtually a whole generation.

"My parents wanted so badly to make this flight. I would have loved to go too, but my parents thought I and my wife would have more chances to fly. So we agreed that they make the trip. This is fate."

"What shall we do now? How can people be able to continue here? All fields are worked by the families themselves. None has a farm hand."

NO BODIES FOUND

Nothing resembling a human body was found after the $3-million French-built airliner, bound for Geneva and Rome, plowed into a grassy field on the outskirts of Duerrnaesch. Blasting a crater 18 feet deep, it disintegrated. The biggest piece of wreckage found was a six-foot section of one wing.

Among the dead was one American, Emerson Glauner Jr., 36, of Rockton, Ill. Glauner, a divisional sales manager of the Beloit Corp., manufacturer of papermaking machinery, was on his way to a paper mill in France.

SUGGEST SABOTAGE

Six foreigners and 68 Swiss made up the passenger list. All the crew members were Swiss.

The crash occurred eight minutes after the plane had taken

Castro Terrorists Stepping Up Raids

CARACAS Venezuela (AP)—

Interior Minister Manuel Mantilla says Castro Communists are stepping up terrorist raids in an attempt to thwart the presidential election set tentatively for Dec. 1.

Their targets Wednesday included the home of an officer of President Romulo Betancourt's army guard, American oil pipelines and a police post at the oil center of Maracaibo.

Officials said members of the Communist Armed Forces for National Liberation also may be responsible for the fatal shooting of a policeman whose body was found in a Caracas slum.

ACCIDENT TOLL RISES

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Safety Council reported today that accidents killed 47,200 persons in the United States during the first six months this year, 3 per cent higher than in the first half of 1962.

off and shortly after the pilot had radioed a "Mayday" disaster signal and desperately cried "No more! No more!"

Rumors circulated that the plane may have been sabotaged after some witnesses said it disintegrated in the air. But Col. Karl Hoegger of the Swiss Federal Air Office said evidence collected so far appeared to rule out foul play.

"But," he added, "of course I cannot prove this."

AUGUST FARM PRICES LOWER

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania farm prices during August were 3 per cent lower than in the same month a year ago, the state crop reporting service reported Wednesday.

The main decline came in milk prices which were $4.45 a hundredweight (46½ quarts)—15 per cent below August 1962.

However, prices were about 3 per cent ahead of those received in July. Milk prices were up about 15 cents a hundredweight.

Prices for eggs were 2 cents a dozen over July and turkeys increased a penny a pound. Meat animal prices generally decreased with hogs down 20 cents, the first decline in several months. Slaughter cows were off 40 cents and lambs declined 50 cents. Steers and heifers held steady at $22.40 with calves up 60 cents to $26 per hundredweight.

BALL FINISHES PAKISTAN JOB

By ALAN KENNEDY

RAWALPINDI, Pakistan (AP)—U.S. Undersecretary of State George Ball ended a three-day visit to Pakistan today, saying he had had excellent talks with Pakistani leaders and "we have a better understanding of each other's point of view."

Although he failed to win a specific promise from President Ayub Khan not to move closer to Red China, Ball said his mission, ordered by President Kennedy, was fulfilled. He had been sent to probe Pakistan's intention toward the Communist bloc.

American sources said Ball had the clear impression that Pakistan did not contemplate a mutual defense pact with Communist China nor any other approach to Peking that would contradict Pakistan's role in anti-Communist alliances.

The undersecretary flies now to Portugal for further talks with Premier Antonio de Oliveira Salazar — chief of another Western allied government with which the United States has been having differences.

Aides said he plans to report to President Kennedy Monday.

Attorney Seeks Seat In Senate

EASTON, Pa. (AP)—A 35-year-old attorney from Hellertown is the Republican candidate for the state senate seat formerly held by Fred B. Rooney who was elected to Congress last July.

The Northampton County GOP executive committee selected Earl S. Heffner Jr. over four other candidates to oppose Democratic State Rep. Gus P. Verona, who was picked last month by the Democratic executive committee to run in the Nov. 5 election.

Heffner, a member of a Bethlehem law firm, will be seeking his first elected political office. He attended Dickinson College and received his law degree at Temple University.

The GOP committee also named Robert L. Hansen, 46, of Bethlehem as candidate for clerk of the county Orphans Court.

EXPERTS FEEL VIET NAM WAR WILL BE LONG

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The political and religious turbulence rocking South Viet Nam has caused some key U.S. military men to revise their estimates and predict a longer anti-Communist war—and probably a longer American involvement.

Past predictions that victory over Red guerrillas might be achieved in three years or so were based largely on an assumption of political stability in South Viet Nam.

Some knowledgeable officers considered that time estimate optimistic, even before the Saigon government began repressing Buddhists last May.

VANCE LEAVES

Meanwhile, Secretary of the Army Cyrus Vance is about to leave on a two-week Pacific area tour which will take him to South Viet Nam about the middle of the month.

He will be the first top civilian official from the Pentagon to visit South Viet Nam since the Buddhist troubles broke out.

Some consideration was given to striking South Viet Nam from Vance's itinerary because of the delicate situation which finds the government of President Ngo Dinh Diem in conflict with U.S. policy.

MILITARY INSPECTION

Apparently the matter has been resolved in favor of Vance's going to Saigon—but informed authorities indicated he will confine himself to a military inspection and avoid any public comments on the Vietnamese political-religious crisis.

A card party will be held at the local fire hall this Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Rev. Russell Shilling, superintendent of the York Lutheran Home for the Aged, will be the guest speaker for the annual Harvest Home service next Sunday at 10:30. Flowers and produce for display are to be brought to the church by 7 o'clock Saturday evening.

"Conversion Plus," a 40-minute motion picture, will be shown Sunday in the church school hour at 9:15. The executive committee of the "Parish Life Advance Now" will meet on September 10 at 7:00 o'clock. The council will meet at 8:00.

Mrs. Ellis Stambaugh and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Kohr, New Oxford, visited recently in Florida.

Most of the 307,000 residents of Zanzibar earn their living picking and processing the unopened aromatic flower buds of the clove tree. The buds, when dried become the familiar kitchen spice.

hopeful included an increasing rate of defections from the Communist guerrillas, capture of more Red weapons, higher casualties among the Communists, and the building of thousands of new fortified hamlets to protect the peasants.

NO RELIABLE KNOWLEDGE

But some authorities said that while intelligence has improved there is no reliable way of knowing how many new men the Communists have sent into South Viet Nam or to what extent the Reds have been able to replace lost weapons.

Also, it was said, there is evidence that some areas believed regained from the Communists have not stayed that way—that the peasants backslid when government forces moved on.

Tran Van Chuong, South Viet Nam's former ambassador to the United States, told The Associated Press Wednesday in an interview that the Diem government has irreparably lost the support of its people.

FOREIGN AID

No amount of foreign aid can carry Diem's regime to victory, Chuong said. Still, he added, aid to Viet Nam cannot be abruptly stopped without losing it to the Communists.

"This dilemma seems insoluble," he continued, "because almost all of the material forces in Viet Nam are in the hands of dictators who are determined to use the population of Saigon, including the Americans there—and even the freedom of Viet Nam—to blackmail the United States into continuing its aid to a regime which has irreparably lost the support of the people and can no longer lead them to victory."

Chuong quit his post after Diem's brother, Ngo Dinh Nhu, raided Buddhist pagodas Aug. 21 and rounded up hundreds of monks and nuns. Mrs. Chuong resigned as South Viet Nam's permanent observer at the United Nations.

Chuong avoided all references in the interview to his daughter, who is Nhu's wife.

SUBMIT LOW BID

HARRISBURG (AP)—An Erie firm has submitted an unofficial low bid Wednesday of $246,811 for electrical construction work at the Pennsylvania State University.

The General State Authority reported that the unofficial low bid, under Trico Electric, Inc., was $246,811 for electrical work on the university's physical education building.

Checking the personal effects of an accident victim, hospital attendants found a "safe driving award." They asked the man, whose car had hit a tree, if the award was his. "Oh no, I just found it," the driver replied from the emergency room cot.

CAB DECISION IS ATTACKED

WASHINGTON (AP)—Philadelphia has charged that the Civil Aeronautics Board's decision to strip Northeast Airlines of its routes south of New York, including that between Philadelphia and Miami, would have a "disastrous effect" on public travel to and from Florida.

In a petition asking the CAB to reconsider its decision, Philadelphia said it had not been for Northeast's authorization as the third airline on the east coast route, "the Boston and Philadelphia-Florida markets would have remained dormant."

Meanwhile, in response to a reconsideration petition filed by the Airline Pilots Association, Eastern Air Lines said it had publicly offered jobs to 100 pilots of Northeast at such time as service south of New York is stopped.

Eastern Air Lines said the pilots would probably be hired in time for winter operations. The airline said it would follow whatever arrangements the unions worked out as to seniority of pilots.

Champion Golfer Misses 1963 Cut

MUTTONTOWN, N. Y. (AP)—Tom Nieporie of Piping Rock made an auspicious bow on the Long Island golf scene in 1962. He won the Long Island PGA and that group's Open.

But in the first round of the 1963 Long Island Open, Tom shot an 82 and was eliminated from the final two rounds. Those with 79 qualified.

They'd Never Call Themselves Elders

LAKESIDE PARK, Ky. (AP)—A married couple's class at Lakeside Presbyterian Church recently discussed whether women should be permitted to serve as elders of the church.

"If they ever are," one male suggested, "they'll have to change the title from 'elders' to 'youngers.'"

DON'T DRAWL, Y'ALL

MEMPHIS (AP) As everyone knows, regional accents can cause misunderstandings. A Memphis miss, who received flowers by wire from her absent sweetheart was puzzled by the card. It was signed "with 11 kisses." What he had said was, "with love and kisses."

Philadelphia was the last National League team to lose four straight World Series games. It happened in 1950 against the Yankees.

MISS ALABAMA JUDGED BEST IN SWIM SUIT

By TOM SEPPY

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—"I didn't think this was my category, so I just went out and had a good time," said Miss Alabama, winner of the first swimsuit judging in the Miss America contest.

Curvy Judy Short, an 18-year-old Birmingham music student, thinks her best category is the talent competition, in which she'll play the marimba. But Wednesday night the judges found nothing wrong with the way she filled a swimsuit with her 36-22-36 frame.

"This is the last thing I expected to happen," said the hazel-eyed blonde after her victory. "I've always been teased about being chubby."

WINS TALENT TEST

The teasing, she explained, went on when she was a 5-6, 130-pound high school junior two years ago. Now she stands 5-7½ and weighs 122 pounds, all without dieting, she said.

While Judy was winning the swimsuit judging, Miss Virginia, 23-year-old Dorcas Campbell took first night honors in the talent division.

The dark-haired voice major from Fairfield, Va., a ringer for Jacqueline Kennedy, won the judges' nods with selections from the musical "West Side Story" and "Maid of Cadiz."

Dorcas also carried her good luck charm with her—a red ribbon knotted in her pigtail from a bouquet of flowers she received as a guest soloist with the Chicago Symphony last November.

ADD SUSPENSE

As in the past, winners of the evening gown competition were not announced to add spice and suspense to the finals Saturday night.

The 52 contestants, one from each of the 50 states and the cities of New York and Washington, are divided into three groups for three nights of preliminary judging. The 17 who were in the talent division Wednesday night don swimsuits tonight and evening gowns Friday.

Points also are awarded for personality in breakfast interviews with judges.

The goal each girl seeks is the title Miss America 1964, a $10,000 scholarship, and an estimated $75,000 in personal appearance contracts that go with the crown.

WRITES ABOUT VARIED AREAS IN SCOTLAND

A letter from Miss Anne Lott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Lott, Aspers R. 1, who is spending a six-month tour in Scotland under the IFYE program, will return to Adams County in mid-November well informed on the various methods of making hay — Scottish style.

In Edinburgh, where she will attend the famous Edinburgh Festival, she writes August 18 of some of the experiences she has had during the summer:

PEOPLE WONDERFUL

"It has now been two months since I have been in Scotland and I can hardly believe that the time has gone so quickly. I am now in Edinburgh for the Edinburgh Festival and a few days of rest before I travel on to the western area around Glasgow and then move northward to the Highlands, where I shall be 'till the end of October.

"Up to now I have been staying with four families in the northeast area for the first month. The farms were primarily beef-fattening and I learned many interesting ways and got acclimated to the weather as well as the difference in accents. I really am not freezing and do not mind the cold, as I did before.

"The people have been wonderful, they are very friendly and enjoy life and have a good time. HAYING METHODS VARY

"My next area was the southwestern area just below Glasgow and included Preswick, Robert Burns' homeland, and the home of the Ayrshire dairy. I was staying on two dairy farms, and helped with bringing in the hay. This method is different from in the northeast where they hay is first put into 15-foot stacks of loose hay and then baled directly into bales by forking the stack into the baler. On the farm in the southwest, I found that they baled the hay after it has been turned several times — similar to the way it is baled at home. However, because it is not dry yet, the bales are stacked in the field in piles of six or seven. Two are placed about six inches apart and the next two crosswise on top. Then a good fork full of hay is thrown over the top and tied on with a string. After several days the hay is piled onto the wagon and brought into the hay shed.

"On one dairy farm in Ayrshire, I was the guest of the housekeeper for George Templeton of Carnell Home Farm, Hurlford, Ayrshire. Mr. Templeton owns a pedigree Ayrshire herd and exports bulls to many countries. In fact, Mr. Templeton is now on a trip to the United States and Canada, and may take a notion to come to Appledand, Adams County. So, if he should arrive — give Mr. Templeton a good time, he is a wonderful man.

"I could tell you many, many things that have happened to me in the last two months and I feel that I have only seen just a small part of Scotland — a country  $\frac{2}{3}$  the size of Pennsylvania and only  $\frac{1}{2}$  the number of people. Each area is different and you need only 5-10 miles where a different type of farming exists and the accents change.

"Each day has been so totally different too; each experience fitting in to give me an overall picture of Scotland. I must remember that what one family does and thinks does not mean that everyone in Scotland does this just the same way. . . . There are just as many ways of doing things as there are people. And the more people you see and meet the better idea you have

of a country.

"Here at the Edinburgh Festival there are a wide variety of displays, shows, exhibits and competitions in the fine arts from countries all over the world. I have gone to the international photograph show, and the Scots Exhibit among other events at the festival. A highlight of the festival which lasts for three weeks is the Military Tattoo, a military spectacle held at night, in the foreground of the Edinburgh Castle high on the hill. The setting is perfect for the sound of pipes and drums carried by the Scotsmen in their kilts of many different clans. A very colorful and striking parade and march in the highland dress. Here, too, I saw my first highland dancers and found the dancing very intricate in motion and step.

"I have been having a wonderful experience and want to thank you for your generous contributions to the IFYE fund. I feel that this exchange has already helped me to understand the Scottish people and am looking forward to sharing these experiences with you.

"Tomorrow I am off to Glasgow and must get some sleep before I go. There is so much to tell of my experiences in Scotland that I cannot put them all in a letter of this type. As the expression goes 'I love Scotland and especially when the sun shines.' So, cherio for now."

Senate Passes Teaching Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has passed a bill under which the federal government for the third year would pick up the whole tab for teaching skills to unemployed workers under the Manpower Training Act.

It's the first peace of legislation suggested by President Kennedy in his civil rights message to be acted on by Congress. But it involves jobs, and not strictly racial issues.

The measure was approved by a voice vote Wednesday and sent to the House where a labor subcommittee has completed hearings on it but has taken no action. Sponsors there said it would be handled in a separate bill, as in the Senate, and not tied to the big civil rights package.

The Senate bill waives the requirement for states to match federal funds in financing the training program in fiscal 1965 starting July 1, 1964. It authorizes an additional $161 million in federal funds to pick up the state's share of the $322 million outlay scheduled for that year.

Washington is paying the full cost of the program in the first two years, fiscal 1963 and 1964.

PINSON PUSH OF REPORTER BRINGS COPS

CINCINNATI (AP)—Earl Lawson and Vada Pinson haven't gotten along for some time. Now the Cincinnati Reds' center fielder is up for a hearing on an assault and battery charge filed by the sportswriter.

Pinson allegedly grabbed Lawson's shirt Wednesday night in the Reds' clubhouse after Cincinnati dropped a 3-2 decision to Philadelphia. The quarrel involved an article in Tuesday's Cincinnati Post Times-Star that said Pinson does not bunt enough and may lose the National League's batting crown as a result.

$300 BOND

"He grabbed me by the shirt and pushed me up against the wall," said Lawson, who was slapped by Pinson once last year.

"I walked away from the clubhouse and found a phone and called police."

AMERICA CUP INVADERS RAP LONG COURSE

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—The top players on the Mexican and Canadian amateur golf teams, which challenged the United States today in the start of the Americas' Cup matches say the course may be too tough for them to whip the Yanks.

"The course plays awfully long," Juan Estrada, leading Mexican player, said Wednesday after flags of the three countries were raised in ceremonies at the Wakonda Country Club course. "The greens are good but the course is very hard. I would settle for par on any round and see if anyone could beat me."

CANADA AGREES

Gary Cowan, leader of the Canadian team, echoed Estrada's comments. Both Cowan and Estrada said their best rounds in practice for the biennial event were 75 on the par 72 course, on which the National Amateur will be played next week.

Lebron Harris Jr. of Enid, Okla., who was paired in the same best ball sixsome with Cowan, said he felt the course was tough but could be mastered.

The United States has won all six matches and is heavily favored this year.

People In The News

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Raymond Burr, who portrays the unbeatable criminal lawyer Perry Mason on television, lost a case in Phoenix involving a judgment of $1,065.

The judgment was to George J. Shaheen of Phoenix, who claimed Burr had owed him the money since 1949. Burr filed an answer to the suit instead of hiring an attorney. Judge Charles C. Stidham ruled the actor did not follow proper procedures and did not appear for a court-ordered deposition last June.

SONG'S STOCK SOARS AFTER JAILING MOVE

By K. C. HWANG

SEOUL (AP)—The military regime's abrupt arrest of ailing ex-Premier Yo-Chan (Tiger) Song, a hero of the Korean War, sent his political stock soaring today. One party named him as its candidate for the presidency and other parties rallied to his cause.

While Song languished in dreaded Mapo Prison the Liberal Democratic party's central committee met in Seoul and unanimously nominated him to oppose strongman Gen. Chung Hee Park in the presidential election Oct. 15.

Many Koreans had expressed belief Song's surprise arrest Wednesday was prompted by reports the Liberal Democrats intended to nominate him. The Liberal Democratic party was organized Tuesday as a breakaway movement from Park's Democratic Republican party.

UNPRECEDENTED MOVE

In an unprecedented move, three major opposition parties merged and decided to select one candidate to oppose strongman Park.

"There is an apparent danger of a free election atmosphere being destroyed," the new party said in a statement denouncing Song's arrest.

Two other parties, while staying out of the new coalition, issued statements charging the latest arrest of Song was an attempt by the military regime to intimidate opponents and destroy any possibility of the elections being free.

RIGGED ELECTION

Civilian politicians have charged that although Park has resigned from the army and will run as a civilian, he and his followers intend to extend military rule through rigged elections.

In Washington, the State Department termed Song's re-arrest "high handed."

The 47-year-old retired lieutenant general was arrested to await a military court-martial on old charges that he had illegally executed three soldiers in 1950 and slandered the military government in recent months. His trial is set for next Monday.

Weddings

Landsperger-DeWees

A candlelight wedding ceremony took place in the First Methodist Church, Hanover, last Thursday evening at 7 o'clock when Miss Virginia Medvid DeWees, Fairfield R. 2, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Medvid, New York City, became the bride of Fred Earle Landsperger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Landsperger, Blue and Gray Motel, Fairfield R. 2. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Elwood L. Bair, pastor.

The church organist played before the ceremony "I Love You Truly," "You'll Never Walk Alone" and the "Lord's Prayer."

The bride wore a powder blue gown of taffeta with puffed embroidered flowers on the full skirt, caught with a Dior bow in the back. The fitted bodice featured a scooped neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a white satin-covered Bible, topped with white rosebuds and satin streamers of rosebuds. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

IN WEDDING PARTY

Mrs. Donald E. Hobbs, R. 2, sister of the groom, was matron of honor. She was attired in a gold taffeta gown, with matching full overskirt caught with a gold rose of the same material. The bodice was fitted, with a scooped neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. Her tiara was of a matching shade of illusion, featuring a huge colonial rose of taffeta. She carried a bouquet of yellow and white chrysanthemums.

Miss Donna Carolyn Landsperger, sister of the groom, the flower girl, wore a pale blue nylon frock, trimmed with pearl buttons and white lace. Her tiara of tear drop pearls held in place her veil of illusion in a matching shade and she carried a basket of yellow and white chrysanthemums.

The groom's mother wore a teal blue dress with pleated skirt and yellow accessories, with a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Donald F. Cool R. 2, served as best man.

RECEPTION HELD

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Hobbs for members of the wedding party and a few friends and relatives, after which the couple left on a trip to Atlantic City, N. J. For traveling the bride chose navy blue with white accessories and a corsage of white rosebuds. They will reside in their newly furnished apartment on the Emmitsburg Rd. The bride attended St. Joseph's High School, Emmitsburg. The groom graduated from Gettysburg High School and the Texaco School of Training in Harrisburg. He served two years in the Armed Forces.

KENNEDY TO SALUTE TWO REPUBLICANS

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy will salute two Republicans, Theodore Roosevelt and Gifford Pinchot, at the start of his 10-state conservation tour later this month.

Kennedy, it was learned today, will begin his Sept. 25-29 trip by flying to Milford, Pa., to visit the former Pinchot home which soon will become a national historic site.

Pinchot, who died in 1946, was a pioneer conservationist who won fame as head of the U.S. Forest Service during the administration of Theodore Roosevelt, one of the most conservation-minded presidents.

The White House says the Kennedy trip will be nonpolitical, and his brief stop at the Pinchot home doubtless will be cited as evidence supporting this claim. Kennedy, however, is not unmindful of potential political benefits from his appearances—many in areas he will not have time to visit in the 1964 presidential campaign.

Although most stops will involve inspection of conservation and resource development projects, Kennedy also plans to visit such population centers as San Francisco, Salt Lake City, Portland, Ore., and Duluth, Minn.

SANDY READY TO AID ARGOS IN GRID RACE

TORONTO (AP)—"I'll play anywhere. I'll run back kicks or carry the water bucket."

So said controversial Sandy Stephens, the heavily publicized, overweight quarterback who secured his release from Montreal and Wednesday signed with the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League for a one-season salary estimated at $16,000. Stephens, suspended by Montreal for being overweight, was claimed by Toronto Tuesday for the $350 waiver price. He had originally signed a $70,000 three-year, no-cut contract with Montreal in 1962.

There were, however, no frills to his new contract with the Argos. There also was no definite word on where he fits in Toronto's plan. But the former Minnesota All-America doesn't figure to carry the water bucket.

"He's a very talented player," said Coach Nobby Wirkowski. "He is coming here as a football player, not as a specialist. He could be a quarterback, fullback or halfback. I'll judge when I see him."

The Argos already have four quarterbacks in camp, but Managing Director Lew Hayman said: "Anytime a player has as much ability as Stephens he can fit a lot of places."

Burglar Is Free Pending Appeal

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — John C. Berkley, originally scheduled to begin serving a three-to-six-year sentence today for a 1959 burglary, remains free on $10,000 bail.

Judge Victor H. Blanc ordered Berkley's bail continued Wednesday pending the outcome of an appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court. Berkley's attorney, State Sen. Benjamin Donolow, filed the appeal—a writ of certiorari—after petitions to the state appellate courts, including the state supreme court, all had been denied.

tended Gettysburg and Mercersburg Academies and graduated from Gettysburg College in 1922. He was a member of the Sigma Chi Fraternity.

He was a veteran of World Wars I and II, serving in the Army Air Force in World War II when his service included being an Air Force instrument inspector at Martin Aircraft in Baltimore. He resided in York for some time while associated with Miller-Buck Corporation there.

HANDLED 2 CENSUSES

He served as director of the agriculture census in Adams County in 1959 and headed the York office for the 1960 census. Later he served as supervisor of assessors and as chief assessor for Adams County. He underwent a period of hospitalization for a lung condition during which he was in a critical condition several times. Upon returning from that illness he asked to be relieved of the chief assessor's duties but continued as an employee in the chief assessor's office.

Survivors include his wife, the former Yvonne Norris; two daughters, Gayle N. and Cammiel M. Hersh, both at home; two sisters, Mrs. Florence Acker, York, and Mrs. Wallace V. Peters, Philadelphia, and a number of nieces and nephews.

His death Wednesday saddened the county officials and employees in the courthouse here where he had worked since August 15, 1960. He was popular with all of his fellow workers and county officials.

It was revealed in court that they also will probably face similar charges in York County.

Ruth Espionosa, who had pleaded guilty to two charges of burglary and larceny, and who was told she would be placed on probation Saturday by the court, was told Wednesday afternoon that arrangements have been completed for West Virginia authorities to handle her probation and that she was now free to go live with her mother in that state. The court told her the sheriff would make arrangements for her to phone her mother and make arrangements to get to West Virginia.

Trailer Owner Nabs Golf Balls

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—An angry woman called the Montgomery County sheriff's department to complain about golf balls from a nearby golf driving range hitting her trailer home.

Later, she showed deputies the dents in her trailer, and then produced more evidence: 940 golf balls she picked up around the trailer since the range opened last spring.

FELLIN DAZED BY 1ST VISIT TO MINE SITE

HAZLETON, Pa. (AP) — David Fellin, returning for the first time to the Shepton mine site, said he could hardly believe in the reality of his two weeks entombment.

"It all seems like a hundred years ago," he remarked Wednesday as, with his wife, Anna, he spent nearly an hour on the scene. In a way, too, he intimated, it was as if it had happened to someone else, and he had only read about it.

HORROR RETURNS

But the horror of his experience flooded back, all the more as he speculated on the fate of Louis Bova, 54, the third trapped miner, whose whereabouts mine experts continue to seek.

Reaffirming his gratitude to all who shared in the rescue of himself and Henry Throne, 28, on Aug. 27, Fellin, peering down the more than 300-foot deep escape shaft, said: "I'm just sorry Lou can't be here." He went on:

"Lou was a rugged individual. I hope he is still alive. I have believed that he is alive. If I were still down there, I think I'd still be alive."

OFFERED TO SEARCH

Fellin had offered repeatedly to lead a searching crew to the place where he thinks Bova was trapped, apart from the other two, and said that was his chief reason for wanting to go back to the mine.

Any immediate possibility of Fellin's performing such a mission however, seemed unlikely. State officials and other mine experts say it may take four or five months of drilling and other complex effort to determine what happened to Bova. Also, Fellin's doctor has advised him to take it easy for the time being, since he is still rather weak.

James Wilson, America's first globe maker, lived to be 92. He spent his last years building a planetarium which, by cranking, showed the earth revolving around the sun.

TV SHOW MUST HAVE MESSAGE AND ENTERTAIN

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—CBS' "The Defenders" apparently started it, but it is evident now that a new requirement of television drama is to "say something."

The rule does not apply to pure entertainment forms—comedy and variety shows—but a message or at least a philosophy must be buried somewhere in every drama.

"The Defenders" has examined on a weekly basis points of view on subjects ranging from illegal operations to academic freedom, and has sometimes shown a regrettable tendency to get a little preachy.

During the coming months, point-of-view series will increase. One will be NBC's "Suspense Theater," a new Thursday night entry, which will try to blend goose-bumps with themes of significance.

Roy Huggins, producer of the series, insists that drama must say something—and say it entertainingly.

STATEMENT INMATERIAL

"It really doesn't matter what the statement is," Huggins said. "A few years ago in New York, there were two stage plays on the same street making contradictory statements and both were hits. One was 'A Streetcar Named Desire,' with Blanche DuBois saying that if you live by illusions you will be destroyed. The other was 'Harvey,' saying that if you don't live by illusion you cannot be very happy."

Huggins expects to tackle such subjects as lack of communication between parents and children and sterility of life for those who withdraw deliberately from its main stream.

"It doesn't matter what we say—we can, in fact, make a different statement each week, even contradict ourselves," he said. "The important thing is to make that human statement with validity—and to make it dramatically."

The series, interrupted occasionally by a Perro Como variety hour, begins Oct. 10.

Koreans Arrest Former Premier

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—South Korea's military authorities arrested former Premier Yo-Chan (Tiger) Song at a Seoul hospital where he had been admitted for treatment of high blood pressure. Song, an outspoken opponent to the military rule in South Korea, was taken from Yonsei University Hospital to Mapo Prison in an army ambulance.

Officials of the military investigation authority showed up at the hospital, showed him an arrest warrant issued by Lt. Gen. Kei Won Kim, deputy chief of staff of the army who has been named justice of Song's trial, and

PACKERS SET FOR TITLE BID

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—Coach Vince Lombardi thinks his National Football League champion Green Bay Packers are ready for their bid for a third straight title.

"I'd say we're ready and if we stay healthy we'll be okay," Lombardi said Tuesday. The Giant game was as good a game as you'll see in the league season," said Lombardi.

"The Giants are still one of the real great defensive clubs," said Lombardi, "and we moved against them."

The Packers rolled up 286 yards running and passing to 182 for the Giants. It was the seventh straight Packer victory over the New York club.

The Packers have won four straight exhibitions since they were upset 20-17 by the College All-Stars in their initial start. Green Bay makes its last exhibition start against the Washington Redskins in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Saturday night and will begin the regular season entertaining the Chicago Bears Sept. 15.

whisked him away to the prison. The arrest came shortly after a South Korean army court martial Wednesday indefinitely postponed Song's trial because of the defendant's poor health.

Song, 47, three-star army general, has been indicted by the army prosecutors' office for unlawfully executing three military personnel in 1950 during the Korean War and slandering the government.

Ball Discusses Pakistan Drift

RAWALPINDI, Pakistan (AP)—Pakistani officials and U.S. Undersecretary of State George Ball Wednesday discussed Pakistan's drift toward Red China.

The United States and Pakistan have "some differences in interests and in point of view," American sources said as Ball met for two hours with Foreign Minister Zulfikar Ali Bhutto in an attempt to arrest or reverse the drift.

The sources said Ball does not necessarily expect full agreement on all issues in dispute between the United States and Pakistan. But his mission is to find practical solutions to problems between the two countries and to "try to live together as an alliance," one source said.

Ball, President Kennedy's special envoy, went to see Pakistani military chiefs before resuming discussions with President Mohammad Ayub Khan.

ARMY GROUP TO MEET

Carlisle Barracks will be the scene of the first seasonal meeting of the Blue Mountain chapter of the Association of the U.S. Army, according to Vance Beachley of Harrisburg, president. Beachley said the meeting for chapter members throughout the midstate area is scheduled for the post Officers' Club on Tuesday, September 17. The evening activities will begin at 6 p.m. A buffet dinner has been set for 7 p.m. The business meeting will get underway at 8.

POLICE SEEK 4 TERRORISTS

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—Police swarmed over Central University Wednesday looking for pro-Castro students believed to have been involved in a bloody, daring raid on air force headquarters in downtown Caracas.

Four terrorists, apparently bent on stealing the paratroop guards' submachine guns, shot up the headquarters Tuesday, killing a guard and wounding a passerby. One terrorist was reported wounded.

Police traced the terrorists' getaway car, driven by a woman, to the university campus. They seized two students and a cache of arms in a dormitory for foreign students.

Officials said the raid was staged by members of the Armed Forces for National Liberation (FALN), a Communist organization trying to topple President Romulo Betancourt before the presidential election in November. Betancourt says Prime Minister Fidel Castro of Cuba sponsors the terrorists.

YANK DOLLAR STRONGER IN WORLD MART

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Moves to strengthen the American dollar are scoring some initial successes in world money markets.

The dollar has advanced slightly against the Swiss franc and the German mark. A greater score has been made against the British pound sterling which has dipped to a two-year low in terms of American money.

While the U.S. Treasury gold stocks have shrunk a little more this summer, Britain's gold and convertible currency reserves also fell in August, off about $19.6 million.

NO REAL ALARM

None of this necessarily forecasts any great upsurge in the dollar's position. Nor does it cause any real alarm in European money capitals.

It does show the close ties between Western currencies and economies. Some Britons in particular are saying that the efforts to strengthen the dollar are the cause of the pound's weakness, temporary as they expect it to be.

It's a neat trick to strengthen one country's position without weakening another's. That's one reason so much interest is attached to the meeting in Washington later this month of the directors of the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund, charged with policing the financial dealings of the Western world as well as encouraging their economic growth.

EUROPEANS WATCHING

Europeans have been watching the American financial moves. First was higher interest rates to keep lendable American dollars at home. Second was the proposal now being debated in Congress, tax American purchases of foreign securities from foreigners, with the same goal in view.

Since American capital has been the great pool from which Europeans could draw since World War II, any drying up of these available funds will be felt. The British pound this week dipped below the official rate of $2.80 to the American dollar. Part of the decline can be traced to Britain's balance of trade problem.

British imports have been rising and now top their exports, thus weakening the pound. Much of this is seasonal, representing purchases of raw materials. But the British blame part of the fall on the American financial moves.

LAUNCH FROM TANKS

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Pershing missiles test-fired here are launched from tank-like tracked vehicles similar to those which will transport the weapon for Army troops in the field. Pershing is an artillery missile capable of hitting targets up to 300 miles away.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

SPIDER VEINS. A lovely asks: What causes spider veins on the face and what can be done about them? Mine have become quite numerous and my make-up no longer covers them.

The Answer: The condition is caused by broken capillaries—minute, thin-walled blood vessels which lie close to the skin's surface. Breaks are due to bruising, to improper skin care techniques and, sometimes, to a health problem.

Unless you know yourself to be in good health, a medical check-up is indicated. To prevent the development of additional broken vessels, handle your skin with a feather touch. Squeezing, pum-meling and stretching the skin are out. Above all, never apply ice or steaming hot water to the face.

What's needed in the way of make-up is a completely opaque foundation. There are two types. One comes in cake form and is sponged on. The other is a cream, applied like any other cream foundation and then set with a colorless finishing powder.

By a method that has proven very successful, dermatologists can render the broken vessels scarcely noticeable. The process entails the insertion of a fine electric needle for the purpose of dehydration. But, never fear, it's not nearly as "sticky" as it sounds.

MAKE-UP MAKE-BELIEVE
Facial flaws, both large and small, can be repaired by make-up. How to give the illusion of perfection to imperfect features is detailed in my leaflet, "MAKE-UP MAKE-BELIEVE." ## BOYLE'S Grab Bag

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Remarks that schoolteachers get tired of hearing:

"In addition to your teaching duties, Miss Elmo, we expect you to act as chaperone at school dances, put on three plays a year and serve as career counselor. We sure would appreciate it, too, if you could help take tickets at the football games this fall."

"Well, yes, you have the experience all right, but speaking frankly, we'd hoped to get a younger teacher with a more advanced degree. After all, the job pays $3,650 a year."

NO MOONLIGHTING

"We realize you have to make both ends meet, Mr. Johnson, but I'm afraid we can't countenance moonlighting. It just doesn't look right for a high school civics teacher to hold a job on the side as a night watchman."

"I think you'll find us a pretty liberal school board, Miss Elmo. We haven't burned a library book in three — no, I think it's four years."

"My teacher used to hit my palm with a ruler if I couldn't spell a word. You won't do that to my little Oswald, will you?"

"This is no means a hide-bound community, Miss Elmo, but I think you'd make a bigger hit with the parents if you—uh—were a little less makeup and—uh—didn't use a cigarette holder in public."

"Yes, Mr. Johnson looks harmless enough now, but my cousin knew him in college and says he was always circulating petitions for something or other—I forget what."

"Ain't you the new schoolmarm, ma'am? Whatcha got on for tonight? I'm free as a bird."

SOCIALLY SHY

"Johnson, what's this nonsense you're being giving my wife about my boy being socially shy? I've told that kid a dozen times I'd break every bone in his head if he didn't speak up in class when it was his turn."

"I admit we're paying you less than the town dog catcher, Mr. Johnson — but he's the mayor's brother-in-law, and besides, he has to work all summer."

"My child never acts that way at home. If he didn't learn it here at school, where did he learn it?"

"We're proud to have you, Miss Elmo, but I guess nobody will ever take the place of Miss Greene in our hearts. She served in our school system for 45 years — until she retired this summer and entered an old ladies' home with the money she'd saved."

Search For Police Thieves Goes On In Many Areas As Result Of 1961 Findings

By HARRY F. ROSENTHAL
Associated Press Staff Writer

In Denver, the scandal involved half a hundred policemen; in Chicago it was 10; in Burlington, Vt., it was 11.

The job of ferreting out policemen accused of turning them into thieves instead of turning them in has been slow and difficult.

Last to join the list is Kansas City, Mo., where five policemen are charged with burglaries that netted less than $5,000. And Nassau County, Long Island, N.Y., has seven policemen under indictment.

IN KANSAS CITY

Kansas City's police force still is undergoing a thorough self-search. In Denver, Chicago and Burlington time and effort have been made to find out if there is evidence that some good has come out of the problem.

CHICAGO — "The progress which has been made during the past 3½ years has been phenomenal," says Virgil W. Peterson, operating director of the Chicago Crime Commission. "A very solid foundation has been laid upon which to build for the future. The commission feels that the law enforcement structure in Chicago at the present time indeed is encouraging."

DENVER — "There is lots of work to be done, but things seem to be working out well," says James Slavin, the police chief hired after the wholesale arrests of policemen in 1961. Slavin resigned immediately after a change of the Denver city administration and now is on the staff of Northwestern University.

IN BURLINGTON

BURLINGTON — "We've come up with some mighty good men," since hiring practices were tightened, says Police Chief Arthur J. Caron. He credits salary increases and more supervisory personnel for a new attitude in his department.

The police scandals in the four cities had remarkably similar patterns.

In Denver a patrolman was arrested in August, 1960, on a charge of rifling the safe in a downtown cafe. Several more policemen were arrested in the next few months. A special investigator was appointed by the governor and in September, 1961, more than 20 policemen were arrested in a single day. In all 50 policemen and ex-policemen were arrested and suspended. Thirty-two were convicted, five were acquitted, charges were dismissed against one and two still are to be tried.

CHIEF RESIGNS

The police chief, James E. Childers, resigned soon after the arrests, saying worry over the scandal had affected his health.

In Chicago, Richard Morrison, 23, a burglar, told the state's attorney in 1959, "My cop pals acted as lookouts." Ten policemen were charged with burglary or conspiracy or both. Orlando W. Wilson, a professor of criminology, was brought from California to head the department and he completely reorganized it.

The Burlington case broke in late 1961. It too, involved burglaries by department members. Five policemen were arrested over a five-month period and six others resigned. Chief Caron took over the 51-man department after the investigation.

TOO MANY REPORTS

In Kansas City, a 24-year-old patrolman directed attention to himself last July by discovering and reporting too many burglaries. Within six days, four more policemen — all members of the same platoon — and two civilians were arrested.

Police Chief Clarence M. Kelley, who took over the force two years ago after 20 years with the FBI, said repeatedly: "We will wash our own linen." The department is questioning all 890 members of the force.

Kansas City, Kan., also is in police turmoil. City officials are trying to find a successor to John J. Theroff, who resigned as police chief July 23 on demand of the state attorney general. The attorney general was investigating charges of five police officials of police brutality and laxity in enforcement of liquor and gambling laws.

7 ARE INDICTED

In Nassau County, Long Island, seven county police officers were indicted Aug. 13 after an investigation of the looting of four stores of goods valued at $10,000. A police inspector was sent back to a

COURT LIMITS MEAT CUTTERS ON PICKETING

YORK, Pa. (AP) — The York County Court temporarily has restricted picketing by meatcutters at four Weis supermarkets here, pending a hearing Friday on making the restriction permanent.

The court issued a temporary injunction Tuesday on petition of Weis Supermarkets, Inc., Sunbury, against Local 195 of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of North America, AFL-CIO.

The meat cutters have been on strike since Aug. 13 in an effort to get recognition of their union by the firm.

BLOCK ENTRANCES

In its petition the company contended that up to 100 persons had blocked entrances to a market in the North Gate Shopping Center. Other employees of the stores have been threatened, the petition added.

President Judge George W. Atkins of the York County Court issued the four-point restraining order. It sets the maximum number of pickets at five; requires that picketing be conducted in a peaceful manner; prohibits pickets from interfering with other Weis employees in the performance of their duties, and prohibits acts of assault, or injury to company property.

desk job and a deputy inspector became a captain. Two lieutenants and five sergeants were transferred to other assignments. Two policemen are under suspension and the girl friends of seven officers indicted are charged with receiving stolen property. In adjoining Suffolk County, half a dozen policemen have been in trouble within the past three years and some of the cases still are pending.

In Chicago, Wilson instituted a number of drastic reforms including establishment of an internal investigations division "which conducts investigations of personnel with the view of maintaining high integrity and rigid discipline that are so essential if the force is to function efficiently."

As a result, the Crime Commission found in 1962, there was "tremendous improvement in the solution of major crime in Chicago in 1961."

Rescue Efforts Fail To Save Dying Boy

OCEAN CITY, N.J. (AP) — Gregory W. Watson, 3, of 201 E. 24th St., Chester, Pa., choked to death Tuesday night despite mouth-to-mouth resuscitation by rescue squad members.

The youngster was visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Ruth Thomas. Police said he was suffering from an upper respiratory infection and was given medication during the afternoon.

Mrs. Thomas summoned aid when the child began choking at 8:15 p.m., but he was pronounced dead about 20 minutes later at Shore Memorial Hospital, Somers Point.

NEW DAMAGE TRIAL DENIED

BUTLER, Pa. (AP) — A couple dissatisfied with a jury award in a land condemnation case involving the Pittsburgh-Erie Freeway was denied a bid Tuesday for a new trial.

Judge Clyde S. Shumaker of Butler County denied the motion filed by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Brenkle of Jackson Twp. The couple's attorney said he would advise them to appeal to the State Supreme Court.

The state took part of the Brenkle truck garden farm in 1961 under the right to eminent domain. This land was used for construction of the Zelenople Bypass. The state fixed the value of the Brenkle land at $96,000; the jury awarded the couple $114,000 in damages and about $9,000 in interest last Dec. 1. Trial testimony indicated that the Brenkles are seeking $250,000.

The gyroplane looks like a cross between a windmill and a garden chair.

GETS STATE POST
HARRISBURG (AP)—James M. Cunningham of Zelenople, a well known conservationist, was named Wednesday to head the new Bureau of Conservation and Reclamation to administer the bituminous strip mine law.

Dr. H. B. Charnbury said the appointment is effective immediately. Cunningham, 53, will be paid $10,432 annually.

Penn State Head Talks To Scranton

HARRISBURG (AP)—President Eric Walker of Pennsylvania State University held a general discussion meeting with Gov. Scranton Wednesday.

Walker said there was no specific purpose to the half-hour meeting with Scranton. He said he just wanted to renew acquaintance, since "I haven't seen him since the end of the legislature."

Dr. Walker said the discussion touched upon the matter of $25 million in nonpreferred appropriations which was withheld from the university by the 1963 legislature.

Scranton did not indicate if he would call a special session on the state grants to private universities and colleges, Walker added. He estimated that if the grant were not made available, Penn State will have borrowed some $10 million by the end of this calendar year.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Adm. George W. Anderson Jr., former chief of naval operations, has been sworn in as U.S. ambassador to Portugal.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk presided at the ceremony Tuesday.

SENATE GROUP OKAYS TREATY ON TEST BAN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee assured the Senate Wednesday the "balance of risks" is in favor of ratification of the limited nuclear test ban treaty.

In a formal report recommending approval of the ban on atmospheric, underwater and outer space testing, the committee said U.S. strategic capability is such that "a nuclear attack against the United States on any scale would assure the devastation of the Soviet Union in a retaliatory blow."

"The committee finds the balance of risks weighted in favor of the treaty," the report asserted.

UNDERGROUND TESTS

"It is possible by testing underground that the Soviet Union will slowly erase the technological lead the United States possesses in some critical areas of nuclear development."

"But it is equally true, as the hearings indicated, that this gap could be closed much more rapidly if unrestricted testing were continued."

It added that the treaty would slow the rate and significantly increase the expense of Soviet weapons progress by confining tests to the underground area where the United States has a broad advantage.

"In that light," the report continued, "now would seem to be a good time to stop."

The report, approved by a 16-1 committee vote last week, will be the basis of debate starting on the Senate floor next Monday.

GI TURNCOAT HAS NO MONEY TO GET HOME

By RONNIE WIE

HONG KONG (AP) — Belgian-born U. S. Army turncoat Albert Belhomme of Ashland, Pa., and his family appeared Wednesday to be in a financial dilemma.

The 34-year-old Korean War turncoat, accompanied by his Chinese wife and three sons, came out of Communist China last week on his way to Belgium. Belhomme said he did not know when he would be able to return to Belgium.

"I have no money to pay my passage," he said.

Press reports from Washington said the U. S. Army had denied Belhomme's application for Army back pay amounting to $4,894. The Army cited a 10-year statute of limitations.

The Belhommess Wednesday moved from a downtown hotel to an unfurnished flat in a suburban community.

The former U. S. Army sergeant said he has only $100 left. The hotel rent and food, he said, averaged $10 daily.

"If I continue to live in the

Robert Schuman Dies Wednesday

METZ, France (AP) — Robert Schuman, 77, often called the father of European unity, died Wednesday after a long illness.

Schuman laid out the plan for the European Coal and Steel pool, a production and marketing organization linking France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg.

The same countries later formed the Common Market, or the European Economic Community. Promoters of European unity hope the Common Market will develop into a Europe welded together politically as well as economically.

The Schuman plan was unveiled in 1950, when its author was foreign minister of France.

hotel I will be penniless in 10 days," he said.

Belhomme's transit visa to this British colony does not allow him to take jobs here.

The Salvation Army and British Red Cross gave the Belhommess a helping hand today.

The Salvation Army loaned them a few pieces of furniture and the Red Cross donated clothing to the children.

"So far," Belhomme said, "everybody has been nice to me. I am very grateful."

WALT DISNEY AVOIDS OLD ANIMAL PLOT

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The boy-meets-girl format is a show business cliché, but an even more rigid form governs the animal story.

That plot recipe reads as follows: boy gets pet; pet does something wrong; pet saves someone's life; all is okay.

But that unchanging formula, used literally thousands of times in films and television, is carefully avoided in the NBC television shows made by Walt Disney.

Winston Hibler, the producer of Disney's nature stories, is an expert in a special story form that combines film of wild life with a story line which often incorporates humans. It was a logical outgrowth of Disney's old "True-Life Adventures," some of which were made—often over periods as long as 18 months—in the 1940s.

Hibler's film, "Seal Island," made during mating season, was shot 15 years ago but rebroadcast for the umpteenth time as part of the Sunday night Disney show during the past summer.

"Walt wanted a new dimension in the nature films," Hibler explained. "He felt that younger viewers would be able to identify with a child or someone else in a picture."

Disney nature films are always on the side of the animals. Recently, a Disney crew has been patiently staked out in the Southern California hills, photographing coyotes, hardly one of the more lovable species. They will turn up in a television film, as a comedy gang of animal toughs called "The Hollywood Boys."

Hibler's technique consists of using two casts of animals. There are the wild animals, captured on film by men who patiently wait in blinds, platforms in trees, in baskets swinging from cranes.

For the story portion, Hibler uses what he calls "controlled" animals—the trained, tame or semitrained.

These two elements are delicately stitched together.

"In editing the average television or motion picture, two or three feet of film are thrown out for every foot used," Hibler estimated. "In our nature stories, we use about one foot for every 15 or 20 shot."

Ever use tomato juice for the liquid in cooking rice? Use just the amount needed to cook the rice grains and have the tomato juice evaporate by the end of the cooking time.

Japanese Buy Encyclopedias

TOKYO (AP) — Latest "boom" in Japan, where the thirst for knowledge appears insatiable, is the growing demand for encyclopedias.

The popular demand was triggered in 1961 when major publishing houses made it possible for the average Japanese to own a set on the installment plan. Encyclopedias range from a single volume to a set of 32 volumes at prices from 800 yen ($2.22) to 80,000 yen ($222.00).

There are more than 20 kinds of encyclopedias on the bookstands. The most popular set is a family encyclopedia which comes in seven volumes and sells for 1,900 yen ($33.00).

Handshaker Gets $245 Diamond Ring

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Raymond Miller is going to take a long, hard look the next time anyone professing to be an old friend wants to shake his hand.

Miller, 53, was in a variety store recently when a man bumped into him, then greeted him like an old pal and insisted on shaking hands.

Embarrassed at not remembering the man's face, Miller complied. Soon after the man walked off, Miller discovered a diamond ring valued at $245 was missing from his finger.

"Little Line" Adds Passenger Service

READER, Ark. (AP) — An old-time steam locomotive train leaves this community three times a week for communities with such colorful names as Terapin Neck, Goose Ankle and Possum Trot—from which the special rail line got its name.

The little line has been in operation since 1925, converting only this year from hauling timber and supplies, to passengers. The puffing little steam engine moves the train at about 10 miles an hour on the two-hour round trip.

BLOND OMAHA IS GOLDWATER PREXY BACKER

OMAHA, Neb. (AP)—Mrs. Truman Wood has a husband, three children, two telephones, an aging car, a newly seeded lawn and a political gold mine.

She does her own housework, sometimes with a lift from her children, the oldest of whom is Robin, 9, and tries to keep the newly seeded lawn wet down. But she has given up bridge, interior decorating and the Junior League.

Mrs. Wood, a trim, vivacious blue-eyed blonde of 35 and a sixth-generation Omahian, is one of the originators and the prime mover in what she calls an astonishingly simple do-it-yourself campaign to make Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona the 1964 Republican presidential nominee.

It is incorporated as "Gold for Goldwater of Nebraska," and its registered office is 5410 Seward Street, Omaha, the Wood home.

The campaign currently is yielding between $2,000 and $2,500 per week "and I really believe we haven't even scratched the surface," said Mrs. Wood, whose husband is a sales executive for an oil refinery.

Contributions to the campaign, which already has enlisted about 1,400 persons in 32 states, are largely in the form of postdated checks from $10 up. They are placed in escrow in the United States National Bank of Omaha under an agreement which provides they will be turned over to the corporation for use if Goldwater is nominated, but he is not.

So far these checks total about $12,000. Mrs. Wood says the dollar value of the contributions is "completely secondary" to the number of people the money represents.

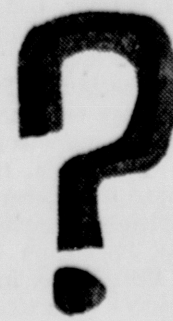

"People who give money now are committing themselves as workers," she said. It is her ambition to see Goldwater go into the national convention next year with

Johnny Wojcik Is Widely Traveled

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Johnny Wojcik, 21-year-old outfielder with the Kansas City Athletics, really has been getting around the last two years.

In 1962 he played with Portland, Ore., Albuquerque, N. M., and the Athletics. The Buffalo, N. Y., resident had spring training at Bradenton, Fla., with the A's this March, was optioned to Portland on April 2 and was recalled by the Athletics on May 23.

"You know a good doctor for this?"

It's a question we answer all the time. Sometimes it's someone new in the neighborhood. Sometimes it's an old friend who just doesn't happen to have a family physician. The boy sprains an ankle... the baby runs a temperature... Grandma has a bad cough. Troubled people often turn to us for help, and rightly so. We work closely with physicians, providing the medicines they prescribe and use in their offices. We know who they are, their specialties, their office hours. In an emergency we're good people to ask. And we're always happy to be of service to our friends and patrons.

GERMAN SPIES ARE TARGETS OF CRITICISM

By HANNS NEUERBOURG
MUNICH, Germany, (AP) — A whitewashed wall rings a wooded estate in a fashionable Munich suburb.

This is about all the outsider sees of the tightly guarded and mystery-laced headquarters of the "Bundesnachrichtendienst" — the German Federal Intelligence Service, or BND for short.

A more popular label is "Gehlen organization", named after its leader who set up the espionage network under American auspices when the cold war broke up the World War II alliance.

HAS 4,000 MEN
Former Lt. Gen. Reinhard Gehlen, in the business for more than 20 years, has an outfit of perhaps 4,000 men. Recently they have weathered an unprecedented onslaught of public criticism.

His agency became the target of violent attacks after a senior official, Heinz Felfe, was convicted as a Soviet agent in Germany's biggest spy trial since the war.

Court testimony at Karlsruhe disclosed Felfe and a codefendant, Hans Clemens, during the Nazi era were both intelligence officials of the SS-controlled Reich security head office—which also employed Adolf Eichmann. Clemens admitted that he took part in the shooting of 330 Italian hostages.

BLAMED BY PRESS

Leaders of both opposition and government parties urged that the outfit be given a thorough going over. Newspapers spoke of a "Nazi nest in Munich". Some politicians clamored for merging BND with the two other German intelligence organizations.

The government took things in stride. The federal chancellor, to which Gehlen is immediately attached, let it be known that "far less than one per cent" of the Gehlen staff formerly were in SS ranks.

What's more, officials said, the fact that Felfe and Clemens were tracked down by the Gehlen people themselves — in 1961 — showed the agency's efficiency.

BEGAN IN 1942
Gehlen first got into the espionage field in 1942 when he took over as head of the German army's "Foreign Armies East" department, provided to collect information on buildups in the rear of the Red army front.

When the war ended, Gehlen possessed a wealth of data copied in triplicate and carefully stowed away in secret places. It is said that Gehlen got in touch with Gen. Edwin L. Sibert, then assistant director of the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency.

U. S. Gen. George S. Patton, sensing early East-West tension, reportedly sent Gehlen to the United States where the German agreed to set up a new spy organization, provided he got a free hand in picking his staff.

The Gehlen organization was provisionally headquartered in the wooded Spessart Mountains south of Frankfurt in 1947 and eventually moved to Pullach, a suburb of Munich. The Americans spent many millions on it before it was put under German control as a Bonn government agency in 1955.

Scientists Seek To Delve 12,000 Years Back Into History Of Man With Middle Eastern Exploration

By FRANCIS STILLEY
AP Newsfeatures Writer

An international team of scientists on September 10 will launch a year-long Middle Eastern exploration in the hopes of turning back the pages of history 12,000 years.

It is to be a major effort to pinpoint the place and time when man, after a million years of existence, learned to grow his own food — thus beginning what we now regard as civilization.

This is described as "the magic moment when man first became anchored to the soil" through discovery of how to plant seeds and to domesticate animals for food-stuffs.

Before then early man depended on the hunting of wild animals and plants which he had found — most likely in despera-the cradle of mankind as well as civilization.

It is about 600 miles south of Ankara, Turkey and directly south of the Tauros Mountains in Turkey. It centers about the present towns of Birecik, Urfa, Diyarbakir and Siirt.

Codirectors of the expedition are Prof. Halet Cambel, a noted woman scholar of the University of Istanbul, Turkey, and Prof. Robert J. Braidwood of the Department of Anthropology at the University of Chicago.

SOME OBSERVATIONS

Here is the way Prof. Braidwood describes the undertaking: "Somewhere in one of perhaps a dozen places in the Middle East about 12,000 years ago, some man made a remarkable observation:

"He observed that a common weed which he had doubtless collected for eating was growing where he had previously spilled seeds.

"This man thought about this event and perhaps discussed it first with his mate — the person closest to him.

"After talking and thinking about this, he may have decided to put more seeds into the ground in this same spot — what must have become for him a magic spot.

"When more wheat appeared in this spot as a result of the planting, this man must have decided that this was a good place to settle down and expand the magic spot by planting more seeds.

NEW CONCERNS

"Once man was able to remain in one spot, he was able to start thinking about matters other than gathering food.

"He was able to begin thinking about his new relationships to other men, new relationships to his immediate surroundings and to those forces in nature which played such a large part in his existence.

"And in this manner, man began his slow, ever so slow ascent into civilization.

"First, we will be looking for three eras. First, the era of specialized and intensified food collecting (15,000 to 9,000 B.C.), the last period of a general food gathering stage when man roamed a wide area in search of plant and animal food.

"Next, we will be looking for evidence of the first era of the food producing stage of man's development, that of incipient cultivation, and domestication where man attempted to obtain new food sources by isolating and caring for selected plants and animals. This era dates from 9,000 to 7,000 B.C.

"The third, the Jarmo, or village area, followed. The village period began about 7,000 B.C. and continued to 5,000 B.C., when the pattern of development to towns and eventually cities was set.

In 1948, Prof. Braidwood led an expedition which discovered what is believed to be the first known village in mankind's history — the village of Jarmo on the border of what is now Iran and Iraq. It is thought to have existed about 6,800 B.C.

Prof. Braidwood said the site
